. [CAD] ArchiCAD Designer Home Furniture 1.0.zip Cadem A: It's because you have included an option -recursive from find command. This option matches and returns those files in which name matches pattern. See -f option in man find man page. From the man page: -f file Return only those files that exist in file. This is useful when searching a whole filesystem or when file names can contain shell wildcards. The filename is not expanded to find all matching filenames; instead, the file itself is expanded, and any resulting expanded files are expanded. If file contains shell wildcards (which nearly always is the case), then
